Photo Release:

On occasion, the Rancocas Nature Center will use photographs of campers engaged in fun activities to highlight our programs in brochures, camp nature journals, web pages, press releases, and other marketing materials. We've found that campers are excited to be included in camp photos and welcome the opportunity to visually share their experiences with others. No personal information about the child will be shared.

NOTE: If you do not want your child included in Rancocas Nature Center camp photos, please fill out and return the Photo Exclusion Form that is available on our website.

Code of Behavior:

Participant safety is a high priority and these rules are meant to ensure that all campers have a safe as well as enjoyable experience.

Children are expected to abide by the following rules of behavior:

- 1). Campers must be kind to all living things, people, animals, and vegetation included.
- 2). Campers must follow all instructions of the teacher/naturalists and their assistants.
- 3). Campers must respect the property of the Rancocas Nature Center and its preserve.

Failure to comply with the above rules will result in discussion among the child, his/her teacher, the camp director, and the child's parent/ guardian. The Rancocas Nature Center reserves the right to remove a camper from a program if the rules are broken and/or if a camper's behavior creates an unsafe situation.

By signing this form below, I assert that I have read the Code of Behavior and discussed it with my child.

Health Restriction Notification:

My child has the following conditions, allergies, and/or restrictions of which Rancocas Nature Center staff/ personnel should be aware:

---

---

NOTE: Rancocas Nature Center personnel will not apply sunscreen and/or insect repellent to campers. Please apply these products to your children prior to their arrival at camp each day. Thank you.

Parent/Guardian Authorization:

My child, _____, has permission to participate in all camp activities, except as noted above and on the attached health form. I understand that camp activities may include varying degrees of risk and that, with notification, some activities may take place off-site and will require transportation.

The policy of the Rancocas Nature Center and its personnel is not to physically administer any medication to participants in any of its programs. Participants must be able to administer all of their medications.

I further grant permission to Rancocas Nature Center employees and agents to seek and obtain emergency care for my child in my place if deemed necessary, and that transportation may be provided by Westampton Township Emergency Services or by private motor vehicles furnished by Rancocas Nature Center personnel or volunteers.
